Sprigs & Twigs, Inc Receives “National Environmental Improvement Distinction Award” from the Professional Landcare Network

“Cook Backyard Project” In East Lyme, CT Judged As One Of The Nation’s Best

September 2010 -- The Professional Landcare Network (PLANET) recently announced that Sprigs & Twigs, Inc of Gales Ferry, CT was awarded the “2010 Environmental Improvement Distinction Award” for their work on the “Cook Backyard Project” in East Lyme, CT. This national award is in recognition of a superior project executed by landscape professionals and will be presented at the PLANET Green Industry Conference in Louisville, KY on October 29, 2010.

“We are thrilled to be recognized with this award and especially proud of the project and the Cook family’s enthusiasm and support throughout. We have created a nationally recognized showpiece for them and we couldn’t be happier”, said Linda K. Lillie, President,

Sprigs & Twigs, Inc.

The project was designed by Linda K. Lillie and installed by Sprigs & Twigs, Inc an undertaking involving transforming the complete landscape by site grading, tree pruning and removal, stonework, the planting of over 200 plants, shrubs and trees and laying sod. Stonework was installed by Weber Masonry of Ledyard and an irrigation system was designed and installed by Shoreline Sprinklers, Inc of Westerly. “I cannot begin to tell you how much we love our yard. It is beautiful! We will take care to be good stewards of it in the years to come. We were very impressed with Sprigs & Twigs professionalism and “can do” spirit. I would highly recommend Sprigs & Twigs to anyone considering a landscaping project. It was a pleasure working with your crew and thank you for giving me the opportunity to do so. You have a group of young people to be proud of.” said homeowner, Michelle Cook
